November 7

Sends an impression of Hancock's wedge wheel, used in 1832 on his steam coach to Brighton

Letter from Richard Feetham, Johannesburg, to Richard Jebb 1903
November 8

Reports that Nel [Hichens] is due in England to negotiate a loan for the Town Council, for sewers, electric tramways and other things; that Curtis has become Assistant Colonial Secretary, Feetham succeeding him as Town Clerk; and comments on Jebb's political views, on tariffs, and the Alaska award

Letter from Henry T Bovey, Montreal, to Richard Jebb

1903
November 10

Comments on Canada's position on the fiscal question: it supports Chamberlain to the hilt, and unless England is prepared to do something for the Colonies, relations will become strained and even separated. He feels it is wrong that the relationship might be considered purely a business one and not one of sentiment, citing the Canadian and Australian troops in the South African War by way of example

Letter from WL Hichens, Falmouth, to Richard Jebb

1903
December 7

Regrets that he is unable to visit Jebb while in England, but suggests meeting in London; notes the number of New College men in Johannesburg, and invites Jebb out there

ICS116/A

Letter from R R [?Sanders], Attorney-General's Department, Commonwealth of Australia, Melbourne, to Richard Jebb

1904
February 2

Sends Hansards covering the Naval Agreement Bill, saying that he does not think the Bill had anything to do with Kingston's resignation or the result of the elections

Letter from Leonard Birley, Midnapur, Bengal, to Richard Jebb

1904
February 3

Gives personal news; and notes that there is an idea in India at present that in criminal cases an Englishman is not treated as fairly as a native, which Birley does not think is the case

Letter from RR [?Sanders], Toorak, Australia, to Richard Jebb

1904
February 15

Discusses the Naval Agreement Bill, Kingston's resignation, Barton's move to the Bench from politics, and Australian politics in general; and refers to Jebb's forthcoming book, which he thinks ought to lead to a better understanding of the Colonial position

Letter from Slaters Detective Association, London, to Richard Jebb

Letter from Allan H Bright, West Derby, Liverpool [Liberal candidate in the 1904 bye-election, for the Oswestry Division], to Richard Jebb

1904 April 9

Expresses the view that the question of tariff reform will disappear, as did that of reciprocity in 1884; and states that while by intellect and tradition Jebb has no real affinity with the Tory Party, he hopes that in working with them (as he must) he will not become merged in them

Notice from The Bulletin, Sydney

Advises of expiry of Jebb's subscription

Letter from M Jebb, Bournemouth, to

Copy letters from Richard Jebb to Wynne Corrie and Lord Harlech, with copy of proposed declaration

1904 July 14-
15

Refer to a proposal for a landlords' manifesto to be issued during the Oswestry bye-election campaign. The manifesto, signatories to which would declare that no tenant would suffer any disadvantage in his business or employment on account of his political opinion, was rejected by WC Bridgeman [the candidate] and others involved in the Unionist campaign, Bridgeman in particular being concerned that it might afterwards cause friction between himself and the signatories

ICS116/A

Letters from Wynne Corrie, Oswestry, to Richard Jebb

1904 July 16-
19

Refers to the manifesto, saying that it could be brought up again after the election; but that he does not feel that he himself is a great landowner

	Note by Jebb of a statement by Brownlow RC Tower at Tetchill and Lyneal, that it was a deplorable thing that any person should countenance base insinuations which might set tenants against their landlords; and that the statement was endorsed by WRO Kynaston as equally applicable to the Hardwick estate	undated [?1904 July]

Regarding arrangements to meet

Letter from David Maclver, Ambleside, to Richard Jebb 1904
September 4
Discusses a letter he thinks Jebb has written; he states that speaking generally, Liverpool supports Mr Chamberlain, and he has no doubt of his own constituents' views on the matter

Letter from R C Jebb, Cambridge, to
Richard Jebb 1904
September 7
Explains that David Maclver is MP for Kirkdale, Liverpool, and that the Liverpool Daily Post alluded to a few words of R C Jebb's in the Times, in which he stated that he was a Free Trader, and a Unionist; Maclver supposed that The Liverpool Daily Post was referring to a letter of Richard Jebb's, and advised the Editor to be more careful
