

Institute of Commonwealth Studies

University of London

Matthew Goniwe papers (ICS127)

Listed by George Brierley

*This is a list of selected items in this collection, which comprises one file.
Researchers should order the entire file using the reference ICS127.*

Reference	Dates	Scope and content
ICS127	Circa 1983-1985	Order prohibiting meetings being held in Cradock, signed by Magistrate Andre Groenewald (20 March 1985).
		Leaflet stating how teachers can become active members of the community, with various handwritten notes attached (1983-1985).
		Handwritten notes for Goniwe's speeches including education crisis 1984, classes and class struggle, the role of teachers, and commission on education (1983-1985).
		Civic newsletter including information about New Zealand rugby tour, May Day protests, and death of Federation of South African Trade Unions Transvaal vice-chairman, Andries Raditsela (March-May 1985).
		New Unity Movement's open letter to all organisations and comrades in the struggle for liberation in South Africa (12 May 1985).
		Regional Crisis in Education Committee – handwritten letter from recording secretary to Committee of Cradock – importance of unity and co-operation of committees (1985).

		Document depicting the struggles of students in South Africa, and how the education system should be resolved (undated).
		Typed and handwritten notes from conference held at the Reno Cinema, accepting the declaration of the United Democratic Front – resisting the reform initiatives of the State (December 1983).
		Three Important Institutions – handwritten notes about the importance of schools, churches and other institutions – all embracing and help to consolidate society ranks (undated).
		Discipline – handwritten notes about new South Africa. South Africa will be changed socially – crime/prostitution, politically – will win political power, economically – disparity between rich/poor will be eradicated (undated).