MS860/11/1	1912-1925	Correspondence [SEE ALSO reference to EJD in unsorted file MS860/22/1.]	Letters of Eliza Jeffries Davis to Professor Pollard (Albert Frederick Pollard) and to Mrs. Pollard. 49 letters to Professor Pollard between October 1912 and January 1925. 3 letters to Mrs. Pollard in July 1922. A photograph, presumably of Eliza Jeffries Davis. The first letter (10/10/12) enquires about studying for an M.A. degree under Pollard's supervision. (4/4/16) EJD complains about being perceived as Pollard's "personal private secretary" and the effect this has had on her own academic progress. EJD addresses Pollard as "Professor Pollard" but sometimes as "my dear master" and "dear my master." EJD is invited to spend time on holiday with the Pollards (16/7/220) but eventually decides against it (23/7/22) (28/7/22.) The last letter from EJD to Pollard (17/1/25) shows anger and bitterness at being used and rejected as she perceives it, and asks pardon for her "officiousness and obtuseness."
